THE

ENGLISHMAN'S MAGAZINE,

A

Popular Periodical for General Reading.

1843.

LONDON:

JAMES BURNS, 17 PORTMAN STREET,

PORTMAN SQUARE.

LONDON:
PRINTED BY ROBSON, LEVEY, AND FRANKLYN,
Great New Street, Fetter Lane.

INDEX.

ANDREWES, Bishop, life of, 169, 207, 227.
Arabia and the Arabians, 60.

Books, choice and right use of, 197.

Charitable bequests, 66.
Christ's presence in the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, 140.
Church of England in relation to Romanism and Dissent, 112.
Church principles, their influence upon trade, 278.
Contentment, 204.
Cowper on Churches and Church-matters, 132.
Crabbe the poet and the Methodists, 178.

Daguerreotype, 103.
Daily Service, reasons for, 277.

Eagle and the lion, 253, 273
Education of the middle classes, 64.
English history, letters on; No. IV. Conversion of the Anglo-Saxons, 9.
English Universities, 279.
Exeter, the Bishop of, on the Church-service, 183.

Fanshawe, Sir R. and Lady, some account of, 25.
Feudal system, the, 185.
French revolutionists, 111.

Gardening, 81.
Guido, the perfect servant: a fable from the Latin, 181.

Hammond, Dr. H., life of, 1, 49, 104.
Heat, 114.

Intelligence: see end of each Number.
Jones of Nayland, life of, 241, 265.
Jovinian, the proud emperor, 232.
Italian brethren of the Misericordia, 8.

Labouring classes, dangers incident to, 127.
Language, on the study of, 137.
Letters from the lakes, No. I. to III., 193.
——————No. IV. to VIII., 217.
Levant, the, and the Asiatic Islands, 145.

Maid of Orleans, the, 257.
Manny, Sir Walter, 89.
March, 63.
Middle ages, history of, 123.
Miscellaneous Extracts.

JANUARY—Conscience (Jones of Nayland); Misapplying Scripture (Bishop Sanderson); a Scotch Presbyterian and the Church of England (Penny); Disputes (Leighton); Christian worship (St. Basil, St. Cyril); Episcopacy (Chillingworth); Paten and chalice; Morality of sectarians (Manning); the Liturgy; Heretics and schismatics (St. Augustine); Reason and revelation (Bp. Butler); Manufacturing system (Archdn. Wilberforce).

Anecdotes—An English squire; George the Third at chapel; Triumph of perseverance—19.

MARCH—Pattern of a wife (English Churchman); Regal state (Clarendon); Daily Public Prayer (Addison)—71.

APRIL—Faith and practice of Geneva (Laing); Cost of schools and gaols; Teetotalism; Educational statistics; Intemperance and insanity (Lord Ashley's speech); the Church and Dissent (Poole's St. Cyprian); the oneness of the Church (Manning); Concession to Dissenters (Clarendon); Church visible and invisible (Manning)—93.

MAY—Salvation by Christ only (Hooker); True religion (Bp. Buckridge); Church-rates (Justice Tindal); Use and abuse of learning (Jones of Nayland); Dangerous characters (Clarendon); the Church the healer of the nation's wounds (Gresley); a word to the rich (ibid.); Church courts (Archdn. R. I. Wilberforce); Cruelty to animals (Jones of Nayland)—117.

JUNE—Church unity (Sir F. Palgrave); Treatment of the Prayer-book by a Dissenter; Early religious instruction; Bishop of Exeter on the offertory—142.

JULY—Family of S. Basil (Rev. J. H. Newman); Church discipline (Quarterly Review); Obligation of Dissenters to the Church (Prof. Blunt); English Churchmen (Southey)—166.

AUGUST—Plymouth brethren (Bp. D. Wilson); Tracts for the Times (ibid.); Unity (Abp. Laud); Evils of controversy (Spenser); Caution to young and ardent Churchmen (Bp. of Oxford); a true Catholic (Vincent of Lerins); Authority of truth (Quarterly Review); Methodist hymns (Sir W. Scott); Good parishioners (Jones of Nayland); the offertory (Archdn. Hale); Modern parliaments (Archdn. Wilberforce)—190.

NOVEMBER—Pews (J. H. Markland, Esq.); Dr. Pusey's sermon (Eng. Churchman); Estimation of the truth (Dr. Hickes); a word to schismatics (Bp. Hall); Sincerity (Jones of Nayland); Administration of baptism (Bishop of Madras; a common error (Jones of Nayland)—262.

Muhammed, life of, 73.

Notices of Books.

JANUARY — Parley's, Abbot's, Gallaudet's Children's Books; Hook's Church Dictionary; Seven Sermons at Leeds; Marshall's Art of reading Church Music; Fragments on the Lord's Supper, from Jeremy Taylor; the Jewess; Toogood's Sketches; Old Man's Rambles; Paget's Churchman's Calendar; Robert Marshall; Clarke's Poems—19.

FEBRUARY—Cheap Literature; Neale's Songs and Ballads; Wesleyan Tracts for the Times;

History of Josiah; Burns' Magazine for the Young; Sewell's Evidences; Herbert Tresham, by Neale—45.

March—Bloxam's Architecture; Few Words to Parish Clerks; Hymns on the Catechism, by Williams and Neale; Church-Poetry; Life of Savonarola; Present for Young Churchmen; Sixpenny Books; Tracts for Lent, &c.; Journal of Education; Bertha's Journal; Paget's Warden of Berkingholt; Brown's Account of the Norwood Schools; Grant on the Nestorians—70.

April—Hammond's Canons; Jesse's Natural History; Wordsworth's Communion in Prayer; Hawker's Poems—92.

May—Stories on the Lord's Prayer and First Four Commandments; the Wren; St. Christopher; Monro's Stories of Cottagers; Wilberforce on Church Courts; Outlines of English History; Palin on the Offertory; Gresley's Sermon at Warwick—116.

June—Kettlewell's Companion for the Penitent; Parkinson's Assize Sermon; Leger on the Daily Service; Devotions from Bishop Andrewes, &c.; Cheap Roman Catholic Publications; Clark's Tract on Fasting—141.

July—Aikin's Life of Addison; Blunt on the Fathers; the Enthusiast; Sandys and Wray on National Education; Burns's Sixpenny Books, The Two Dogs—Faith, Hope, and Charity, &c.; Companion to the Sick-room—165.

August—Watson on the Common Prayer; Halton on the Catechism; Life of Reuchlin; Burns's Tract-Covers; Hierurgia Anglicana; Sunter's Chart of Church Architecture; Tract Society Publications, (Errors of the Fathers); Neale's Agnes de Tracy; Doctrine of the Cross—187.

September—Squire Allworthy; Instructive Biography; Reply to Milner's End of Controversy; History of our Blessed Lord, with Pictures; Lillian Arundel; Popular Tales and Legends; Elements of Knowledge; Paget's Pageant; Heald's Visitation Sermon; Bellair's Tales of the Town; Hook on Mutual Forbearance; Selections from Bp. Wilson; Churton's Holy Portion of the Land—213.

October—Archdn. R. I. Wilberforce's Charge; Wesley's Sermon on the Ministerial Office—237.

November—Eastern Romance; Legends and Traditions; Paget's Tract upon Tombstones; Remarks upon the Book of Psalms; Blunt on the Romish Heresy; Devotions for the Sick—261.

December—Select pieces from Wordsworth; Watson's Churchman's Evenings at Home; Companion to Church Services; Wordsworth's Theophilus Anglicanus; Sacred History; Poor Anthony; Poole's Sermons on the Communion; Manual of Oral Instruction upon the Bible; Knight's Old England; Christian Magazine—283.

Organisation of plants, 121.

Peasantry of England, 110.
Poetry.
All-Saints'-day, 260.
Altar-spoiler, the, 69.
Bible, on the, 18.
Communion of the Church, 236.
Character of the Happy Warrior, 282.
Edburga, 17.
England, the strength of, 164.
English Yeoman, the, 44.
Labourer's Noonday Hymn, 165.
Legend of the Hive, 91.
Lent, 69.
Poor Man, the, and his Parish-church, 186.
Psalm cxxxvii., 141.
Rod of Aaron, the, 237.
Royal Woodman, the, a ballad on the Restoration, 115.
Signal of Lancast, 45.
Spring, approach of, 116.
Violet, on a, 18.
Psalms, the, 281.
Private judgment, 40, 54.

Reapers, the, 199.
Red Sea, the, 17.

Schoolmaster, the, at home—conclusion, 36.
Scott and Dryburgh Abbey, 5.
Scriptures, hints on the reading of, 131.
Seabury, Bp. and the Congregationalists of Massachusetts, 15.
Seged, the life of, 179.
Sir Fiducio, the knight of the Ruby Cross, 154.

The system provided for Christians in the Church, 235.
The wine of Chios, 259.
Tithes and free-will offerings, 249.

Unbaptised Sceptic, the, a true story, 85.
Village Feasts, 148.

Wiclif, life of, 133, 150.
Winter, 30.
Woking-common, 65.
Wood, S. F., the late, 163.

Yeomen, the two, a tale, 97.